MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Central Intelligence

FROM : Herbert E. Hetu
Assistant to the Director (Public Affairs)

SUBJECT : Materials Which Will or May Come to the Attention of the Public

1. I was surprised at Friday's (April 15) morning meeting to learn that the unclassified paper on Soviet Civil Defense had been printed and is ready for distribution. I have not seen it (I did see one version supplied by ). Since the paper has been produced with the express purpose of making it available to the news media and public, I think it might have been profitable if we had seen it before printing.

2. I know this was not a conscious effort to cut us out and don't wish to give that impression. However, I think a brief reminder from you to the morning meeting attendees might head off possible problems or embarrassment in the future. To that end I attach a rough draft of a memo for your consideration.

Herbert E. Hetu

MEMORANDUM FOR: Morning Meeting Participants

SUBJECT : Materials and/or Information Which Will or May Come to the Attention of the Public

When preparing any material (papers, publications, letters, etc.) which will or could become public in one way or another, please coordinate them with the Assistant for Public Affairs to the DCI before they are put in final form, i.e., signed or printed. This small precaution could assist us to prepare for any problem or capitalize on positive actions in advance instead of reacting to information after it has surfaced in the public arena.

NORMAN C. MILLER
WASHINGTON BUREAU CHIEF

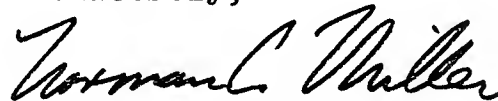

April 18, 1977

Dear Admiral Turner:

I'd like to invite you to join the members of the Journal's Washington bureau for a nightcap (or several nightcaps) after the White House Correspondents' Association dinner April 30 at the Washington Hilton. We will be holding forth in the Conservatory Room on the terrace level.

There's no need to reply to this note. We hope to see you at the party.

Sincerely,

Norman C. Miller

Admiral Stansfield Turner, U.S. Navy
Director of Central Intelligence
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Stan:

I'll be making one of my infrequent trips to Washington to attend the White House Correspondents Dinner the evening of Saturday, April 30.

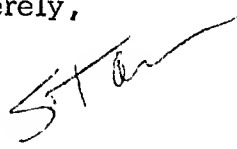

If you'll be available, I thought I might come up early Friday morning in case we could have lunch or at least get together for a while. You suggested this in your February 15 letter but since then I've been in Japan and Korea and occupied in New York.

I know how busy you are in the new job so if it isn't possible, I'll fully understand. If it is, let me know where and when and I'll be there.

Aside from the Middle East (particularly Turkey and Iran), I think Korean developments are of immense interest and too little understood.

Warm regards and hope to see you.

Sincerely,

dk
